Massachusetts Credit Unions Blanket the Homeless with Donations

March 9, 2017 (Marlborough, Mass.)— Thirty Massachusetts Credit Unions and the Cooperative Credit Union Association recently donated 1,035 blankets and thousands of warm clothing items to the Massachusetts Coalition for the Homeless and more than 25 social-service agencies across the Commonwealth.

The Cooperative Credit Union Association in Marlborough, Mass., promotes the interests of nearly 200 credit unions located throughout Delaware, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island. CCUA is, first and foremost, an advocate for its members before Congress and state legislatures, regulatory bodies and the public. In addition, it provides an array of services, including educational programs, workshops and conferences; a daily e-briefing on all the latest news and issues facing credit unions; and, through its CU Connect program—a select group of service providers—and a number of system partners, works to advance the availability of their quality products and services to its members. For more information, visit CCUA.
