

Meet the Association's 2019 GAC Crashers

Congratulations and Welcome

The Cooperative Credit Union Association, Inc.
is pleased to salute its five "Crashers" at the GAC.

Massachusetts:
Laura Galeski
Hanscom Federal Credit Union

New Hampshire:
Jake Powers
St. Mary's Bank

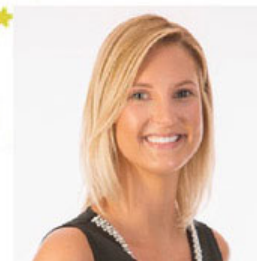

Rhode Island:
Siran Krikorian
Greenwood Credit Union

Delaware:
Natashia F. Osborne
DEXSTA Federal Credit Union

Crash the GAC is a non-stop, career-changing program for credit union young professionals that allows them to experience the industry's largest advocacy conference. Exclusive networking opportunities, leadership development tools, and mentoring sessions are provided by credit union leaders. Teaching young professionals how to advocate successfully for credit unions is paramount to the movement's future success.

Massachusetts:
Sarah Jordan
Polish National Credit Union

The Association provides a $100 scholarship to each of our Crashers. This year marks the 10th Crash the GAC event, the largest ever, and every state in the nation is represented.
