Cooperative Credit Union Association Welcomes Aimee Morin to Team

May 16, 2022 (Marlborough, Massachusetts) — The Cooperative Credit Union Association (CCUA) welcomes Aimee Morin to their team as a new Business Services Project Manager. Responsible for initiating and executing process improvement, workflow, and technology projects with all departments within the CCUA, Morin will also work with credit unions, vendors and other state associations and leagues.

“I’m excited to have Aimee join our team,” stated CCUA President/CEO Ron McLean. “Her expertise in project management will be a great help to the CCUA as we work together to deliver exceptional service to our credit union members.”

“Aimee is a true champion of change management with a proven ability to lead both teams and projects,” agreed Melissa Pomeroy, Chief Revenue Officer with the CCUA. “Coupled with her extensive credit union experience, her ability to ‘hit the ground running’ will provide immediate impact and value throughout the Association.”

Aimee Morin

Morin began her professional career at St. Mary’s Bank, the Nation’s First Credit Union, in Manchester, NH. During her 10+ years tenure, she worked in multiple areas – including business analysis, training and education, and retail. Morin established and chaired St. Mary’s Bank’s first Young Professionals Group and was selected to represent the State of New Hampshire at CUNA’s Government Affairs Conference in 2018.

Prior to joining the CCUA, Morin served as a Project Manager for Meridian Link, where she led the on-line banking software implementations for multiple financial institutions.

Morin has a Master’s degree in Adult Education and Training and a Bachelor’s Degree in English with a Teacher Certification. She also has a Project Management Certification from the University of New Hampshire and has achieved Lean Six Sigma Yellow and Green Belt Certifications from Six Sigma Global Institute.

A New Hampshire native, Morin resides in Manchester with her husband and three children.

About the Cooperative Credit Union Association

The Cooperative Credit Union Association is a regional trade organization serving as the voice for nearly 180-member credit unions located in the States of Delaware, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island. CCUA member credit unions hold combined assets in excess of $73 billion and serve a collective membership base of more than 4.7 million consumers. Last year, CCUA credit unions provided over $500 million in direct financial benefits to their members and had a combined financial impact of over $5 billion on their states.
