Registration Now Open for APEX 2022

In-Person Conference Presented by CCUA and CULCT

May 17, 2022 (Marlborough, Massachusetts / Meriden, Connecticut) – Credit union professionals from Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island are invited to register today for APEX 2022! This exciting in-person conference, presented by the Cooperative Credit Union Association in collaboration with the Credit Union League of Connecticut, will be held on October 12-14 at the Mohegan Sun in Uncasville, Connecticut. Mohegan Sun is confident in its ability to provide the highest level of safety and security for guests and team members.*

The convention-level program will be content-rich, dynamic, and timely with an outstanding group of industry experts, professionals, and regulators sharing thought-provoking concepts, unique insights, and valuable data with attendees. Sessions are designed to provide both professionals and volunteers from large and small credit unions with knowledge to help their credit unions thrive in the years ahead. The exhibit hall will be energized with live demonstrations and displays of cutting-edge technology, tools and advancements featuring title sponsor CUNA Mutual Group with preeminent industry service partners that understand the importance of supporting credit unions.

“We are thrilled to continue and build upon our collaborative partnership with our neighbors in Connecticut for APEX 2022,” said Ron McLean, President/CEO of the Cooperative Credit Union Association. “APEX 2021 was a dynamic event for participants and we are looking to deliver even more value this year. Being able to connect with peers, foster new relationships and to network and learn is a tremendous opportunity for our credit unions.”

“Just as an apex represents a coming together at the highest point, APEX 2022 will bring together credit unions across five states for a uniquely valuable and expanded learning opportunity,” said Bruce Adams, President & CEO of The Credit Union League of Connecticut. “We are thrilled to join with the Cooperative Credit Union Association once again.”

Following a year of rapid change and unanticipated challenges, you need insights and inspiration to move your credit union forward. With a variety of registration options available, make APEX 2022 your must-attend LIVE conference!
